THE GREAT PAINT

Alex Willmore

The Great Paint is a brilliantly funny tale about what can happen when we forget to think of others and get carried away with our artistic endeavours...

Frog thinks he's pretty artistic and that the rest of the forest could do with a little bit of inventive improvement. From painting to sculpture, to performance art and origami, Frog gets to work on beautifying everything around him... but will his friends appreciate his creativity? And how will Frog show them he's sorry and that true creative inspiration lies in the friendship of others?

Alex Willmore is a British illustrator who has illustrated books for a number of publishers, as well as creating puzzles, packaging design, children's clothes, stationery and greeting cards. Alex likes to work both digitally and traditionally in a number of different styles, but always likes the final outcome to have a real sense of fun. His first author/illustrator title, The Big Trip, was published by Tate in 2020.

HOW THE STARS CAME TO BE

Poonam Mistry

Have you ever wondered how the stars came to be? Poonam Mistry's acclaimed modern take on traditional folk tales offers a miraculous explanation.

The fisherman's daughter loved to dance in the sunlight, and bathe in the glow of the moon. But, when the moon would disappear for a few nights each month, the fisherman's daughter would worry about her father: how would he find his way home from sea in the deep darkness?

When the sun finds her sobbing one night, he takes one of his rays and smashes it on the ground, creating the stars. It is then that the young girl begins to arrange the bright new stars in the dark night sky...

- SHORTLISTED FOR THE 2021 CILIP KATE GREENAWAY MEDAL
- POONAM MISTRY'S UNMISTAKABLE ILLUSTRATIONS GRACE A NEW FOLK TALE, SET TO BE A CLASSIC

Poonam Mistry is a freelance illustrator living in the UK. Her style incorporates a love of nature and her Indian roots, and explores the relationships between pattern, shapes and colour. How the Stars Came to Be is Mistry's first title with Tate Publishing.
